

Polymath 1,085 Set by Gozo

ACROSS

- 1 They “hang by the wall” according to Shakespeare in Love’s Labour’s Lost (7)
5 English contralto for whom Elgar wrote his Sea Pictures (5,4)
10 Small roundish boat made of waterproofed hides stretched over a wicker frame (7)
11 South African Test cricket all-rounder who captained Nottinghamshire from 1979 to 1987 (5,4)
13 The NA of DNA (7,4)
14 -----eared, deaf or insensitive (5)
16 Cary Grant’s real name, Archibald Alex (5)
17 One of the four villages which “are the quietest places under the sun”, according to A.E. Housman (11)
19 The rank of the air officer junior to a brigadier (9)
24 A ringing inspiring demand for action (7,4)
25 Chastolite’s alternative name (5)
27 Conspicuous success or ostentation (5)
28 Defuse an angry situation by frank discussion (5,3,3)
30 ----- and the Lion, play by George Bernard Shaw (9)
31 In computing, programs that request data from servers (7)
32 Coffee, Sequatchie and Unicoi are three of this US state’s 95 counties (9)
33 In cricket, close an innings before the tenth wicket falls (7)

DOWN

- 2 Parliamentary procedures by which debates are halted and immediate votes are taken (8)
3 Wild mustard (8)
4 It’s “short in duration”, and made from real ice, out east (6)
6 US dramatist of The Little Foxes and The Searching Wind (7,7)
7 Toyota’s SUV, launched in 1994, now in its fifth generation of models (4)
8 Avifauna (4,4)
9 Habitually silent and uncommunicative (8)
12 In Oxford University the oldest academic institution in the English speaking world still on its original site (7,7)
15 In the US and Canada, a narrow ravine cut by a fast stream (5)
18 Costa Rican currency; punctuation mark (5)
20 Spanish province known to the Romans as Lucentum (8)
21 A test drive, maybe (5,3)
22 Haydn’s Symphony No.45 in F sharp minor which finishes which just two violinists playing on stage (8)
23 The ----- and the Hearth, novel by Charles Reade (8)
26 Fred, Australian tennis player who won the Wimbledon Men’s Double title in 1962 and 1964 with Bob Hewitt (6)
29 In Greek mythology, the Sicilian shepherd who loved Galatea and whom the jealous Polyphemus crushed with a huge rock (4)

Solution Polymath 1,083

