

Polymath 1,099 Set by Bradman

ACROSS

- 1 What enables steel to be made from molten pig iron (8,7)
11 Like very sensitive sensory nerve fibres (9)
12 A democratic socialist political publication (7)
13 A Brazilian beach (7)
14 A class of plants with one stamen (9)
15 The practice of wearing clothes normally worn by the opposite sex (12)
17 C.E.M.____, a British philosopher who died in 1953 (4)
19 A flowering plant of the mallow family (8)
21 A phylum of minute aquatic animals (8)
23 A blue pigment used as a primary colour in printing (4)
24 A young man who is the central figure in a long narrative poem by Lord Byron (6,6)
27 A delicately flavoured soft cheese (9)
28 Instruments measuring mph or kph (7)
29 Referring to lockjaw (7)
30 A Scottish word for a kindly tenant (9)
31 The role of Jo in Bleak House by Charles Dickens (8,7)

DOWN

- 2 An African country to the north of Ethiopia (7)
3 An asset of special significance -- a term derived from card-playing (6,4)
4 ____ Gaynor , a female American performer (5)
5 A mixture (8)
6 An instrument used by (11)
7 A city in Queensland, Australia (6)
8 In biology, rugged with projections such as hairs or scales (9)
9 An historical type of resident parish priest, as opposed to a vicar or rector (9,6)
10 The motto of the Royal Air Force (3,5,2,5)
16 Protrusions of eyeballs (Latin plural) (11)
18 A word meaning 'to tear asunder', a word meaning much the same without its first two-letter prefix (10)
20 A post-rock band named after a capital city (4,5)
22 A facility for digging at an angle in mining (5,3)
25 An alumnus of Christ's Hospital (3,4)
26 Sounds made by bouncing objects (6)
28 One of those bodily parts which Henry V wanted stiffened in Shakespeare's play (5)

Solution Polymath 1,097

