

Polymath 1,145 Set by Aardvark

ACROSS

- 1 Inability to recognise familiar things, especially after brain damage (7)
- 5 Oiled or greased paper in which meat is cooked and served (9)
- 10 Heavy steel-grey metallic element, atomic number 77 (7)
- 11 Of leaves, shaped like an arrowhead, with the barbs pointing backwards (9)
- 13 English classical guitarist and lutenist, 1933-2020 (6,5)
- 14 Purple grape variety used to make dry red wine, especially in Beaujolais (5)
- 16 Large pincer-like claw of an arthropod such as the crab (5)
- 17 Maurice, Belgian writer who won the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1911 (11)
- 19 An illustration inset separately into a book (4,5)
- 24 Turkish football club who beat Arsenal to win the Uefa Cup in 2000 (11)
- 25 One-roomed hut or temporary dwelling, often built as a mountain shelter (5)
- 27 Canada's oldest national park, located in Alberta's Rockies (5)
- 28 Large north Atlantic earless seal, in the genus Mirounga (3,8)
- 30 Italian neoclassical architectural style modelled on Vitruvius (9)
- 31 Common brownish-grey freshwater dabbling duck, Anas strepera (7)
- 32 Latin term meaning "beware of the dog" (4,5)
- 33 Flat Classic horse race held at Doncaster since 1776 (2,5)

DOWN

- 2 Script in which the sacred texts of the Sikhs are written (8)
- 3 Bruce, fashion designer who restyled the staff uniform at McDonald's in 2008 (8)
- 4 Large thick-tongued grey-green arboreal lizard of tropical America (6)
- 6 1937 film featuring Groucho Marx as Dr Hugo Z. Hackenbush (1,3,2,3,5)
- 7 Egyptian goddess of fertility and magic (4)
- 8 Salacious character in Cervantes' 1605 novel Don Quixote (8)
- 9 Under the Romans, the ruler of the fourth part of a province (8)
- 12 Large body of water in Canada's Northwest Territories, drained by the Mackenzie River (5,5,4)
- 15 Especially in French Switzerland, a rocky mountain edge (5)
- 18 Liqueur made from brandy flavoured with bitter almonds or peach kernels (5)
- 20 Stadium in Rio de Janeiro opened in 1950 to host the football World Cup (8)
- 21 Pasta in the shape of bow ties or butterflies (8)
- 22 Prime minister of Australia from 1983 to 1991 (3,5)
- 23 Heavy, velvety corded fabric, literally "hairy caterpillar" in French (8)
- 26 In heraldry, a small yellow circle like a gold coin (6)
- 29 ----, the Inebriate Woman, a 1971 BBC TV drama starring Patricia Hayes (4)

Solution Polymath 1,143

