

Polymath 1,205 Set by Hamilton

ACROSS

- 1 South Devon location of a cliff railway opened in 1926 (10)
- 6 Paul, detective created by Francis Durrbridge (6)
- 11 German measles (7)
- 12 The fifth of seven comedy musical films starring Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour (4,2,3)
- 13 Another name for the parti-coloured bat (9)
- 14 London location of the Empire theatre, built in 1901 (7)
- 15 A spiny, harmless, Australian lizard (6)
- 16 If nothing else (2,3,5)
- 19 Olivia Newton-John track, a US no. 1 for ten weeks (8)
- 20 The fourth or true stomach of ruminants (8)
- 23 Outlaw who also went by the name John Palmer (4,6)
- 25 One of the three alcoholic constituents of the cocktail 'Between the sheets' (6)
- 28 Michael, author of The Book of the British Library (7)
- 30 State control of social and economic matters (9)
- 31 See 10
- 32 The 125th emperor of Japan (1989-2019) (7)
- 33 The buying or selling of ecclesiastical privileges (6)
- 34 The process of starting to drill to make a bore hole (8-2)

DOWN

- 1 Lady Maria and Sir Thomas from Mansfield Park (7)
- 2 Reggae pioneer born in Nine Mile, Jamaica (3,6)
- 3 Scottish football striker, later a captain on BBC's Question of Sport (4,7)
- 4 Impervious to light, obscure (6)
- 5 A comic opera or musical farce (8)
- 7 French sword, also known in English as a tuck (5)
- 8 Fish kept by Blofeld in his underground lair in You Only Live Twice (7)
- 9 Habitat supporting a biological community of interacting organisms (9)
- 10,31 Rembrandt painting (1654) now exhibited in the Louvre (9,2,3,4)
- 17 Luxury sports car and SUV manufacturer founded in 1963 (11)
- 18 In the US, narrow, winding river gorges (9)
- 19 Vehicles fit for young children (5,4)
- 21 Deteriorating with age (9)
- 22 Dance that originated in Harlem in the 1920s (5,3)
- 24 Dockyard where HMS Victory was built and launched (7)
- 26 A lightweight mortar named after a Dutch military engineer (7)
- 27 Large shepherd dog also known as Berger de Brie (6)
- 29 Rice wine used as a flavouring in Japanese cookery (5)

Solution 1,204

You can now solve our crosswords in the new FT crossword app at ft.com/crosswordapp