

Polymath 1,221 Set by HAMILTON

ACROSS

- 1 A person, especially a diplomat, invested with full power to transact business (15)
- 11 Relating to the 19th century in Italy (9)
- 12 Walkway along a canal or river (7)
- 13 A measure of the lack of order or predictability in a given system (7)
- 14 Curved chain of active volcanoes found along tectonic plate boundaries, eg Japan (6,3)
- 15 Essex and England cricketer (1923-2011) nicknamed 'Barnacle' (6,6)
- 17 The —, 1993 film starring Tom Cruise (4)
- 19 One set of protagonists in the Wars of the Roses (8)
- 21 London theatre in St Martin's Lane, opened in 1904 (8)
- 23 Fictional corporation whose products Wile E Coyote used in the Road Runner cartoons (4)
- 24 Engraved, barrel-shaped stone once rolled on clay to indicate ownership (8,4)
- 27 Given to begging, like the Friar in The Canterbury Tales (9)
- 28 Growing on, or close to, the ground (7)
- 29 1715 British legislation to prevent civil disorder (4,3)
- 30 Type of entertainment, especially one carried in a box (5-4)
- 31 Status applied to foreign diplomats by a host country removing immunity from arrest etc (7,3,5)

DOWN

- 2 Last Beatles hit before breaking up (3,2,2)
- 3 Large cemetery in an ancient city (10)
- 4 Jan Francis character in Just Good Friends (5)
- 5 In double figures (3-5)
- 6 Actress who played Maria in 1961 version of West Side Story (7,4)
- 7 The worse for drink (2,4)
- 8 Supporter of the 40th US President (9)
- 9 Poet (1823-96) who wrote The Angel in the House (8,7)
- 10 Mary Wesley novel filmed for TV in 1992 (3,8,4)
- 16 'All my eye and — —'; a phrase originating in the 1700s meaning rubbish or humbug (5,6)
- 18 Sufferer of particularly painful headaches (10)
- 20 Facial feature with a prominent bridge, also known as aquiline (5,4)
- 22 Any member of an order of insects with two wings, the so-called 'true flies' (8)
- 25 The range or reach of sight (7)
- 26 The important internal organs of the body (6)
- 28 Actor who played Troy Bolton in the High School Musical trilogy (5)

Solution 1,220

You can now solve our crosswords in the new FT crossword app at ft.com/crosswordapp