

Polymath 1,256 Set by BRADMAN

ACROSS

- 1 Household arrangement to accommodate one person with a spouse and a lover (6,1,5)
7 An Old English rune (4)
11 A Roman satirist (7)
12 A law-breaker (9)
13 A narrow crooked valley, as seen on the moon (5)
14 City on the Mohawk river (11)
15 Sinéad __, Irish singer-songwriter who died in 2023 (7)
16 Hard metamorphic rock (9)
17 'In the work cited' (Latin abbreviation) (2,3)
19 Alan __, author of Cry, the Beloved Country (5)
21 Slender silvery fish (5)
23 Name given to one of the Magi (sometimes spelt with a 'z') (9)
26 A punishment or reprimand (4-3)
28 A mortal blow (4,2,5)
30 Jubilate (5)
31 Back entry to a theatre or concert hall for performers (5,4)
32 Concluding passages in musical compositions (7)
33 The watery component of milk (4)
34 London thoroughfare noted for medical specialists (6,6)

DOWN

- 1 A chief steward (5-4)
2 Imprint of a publisher specialising in choral and new music (7)
3 A type of biscuit (6,3)
4 Village with a railway station recalled in famous poem (9)
5 The name given to a series of German regimes (5)
6 A title given to some daughters of Iberian kings (7)
8 Hand over to the authorities of another country (9)
9 Scottish historian whose name sounds like an English city (7)
10 A surgical knife (6)
16 Arab country on a peninsula (5)
18 Enzyme produced chiefly by fungi, bacteria and protozoans (9)
20 The Garden State (3,6)
21 An amphibious rodent (6,3)
22 Practitioner of a Japanese form of self-defence (9)
23 A large cutting tool in an H-shaped frame (7)
24 Name of the greengrocer and Chief Warden in TV's Dad's Army (6)
25 The Italian equivalent of Mrs (7)
27 Ballet step involving a whisking movement (7)
29 'The cruellest month', according to TS Eliot (5)

Solution 1,256

You can now solve our crosswords in the FT crossword app at ft.com/crosswordapp