

POLYMATH 1,309 by HAMILTON

ACROSS

- 1 Limited area under a roof or floor for wiring and plumbing (5,5)
6 Ancient Greek goddess of wisdom whose Roman equivalent was Minerva (6)
11 Nickname of the Scottish governess to the Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret (7)
12 Highly specialised subjects or publications (9)
13 Naturally occurring paraffin mineraloid, also known as earthwax (9)
14 An isolated rocky peak projecting above a surface of inland snow or ice (7)
15 Weak, ineffectual or sloppily sentimental (6)
16 A breed of cattle originating in the eastern Midlands, reared nowadays for meat (7,3)
19 A fire here inspired the song Smoke on the Water by Deep Purple (8)
20 Channel 4 TV series by David Starkey (2004-07) (8)
23 Surveying instrument for measuring horizontal and vertical angles (10)
25 Singer who famously duetted with Harry Belafonte on There's a Hole in My Bucket (6)
28 Any of an order of cephalopod molluscs that have eight arms bearing sessile suckers (7)
30 Either of two muscles covering part of the pelvis involved in movement of hips and thighs (9)
31 Sung without musical accompaniment (1,8)
32 Italian dish made from coarsely ground cornmeal (7)
33 Starting from the beginning or anew (2,4)
34 Pop artist who co-created the sleeve design for the Sergeant Pepper album (5,5)

DOWN

- 1 The husband of an adulteress (7)
2 A member of a legendary race of female warriors (9)
3 Descriptive of any equipment that is worn out or outdated (4-7)
4 Pianist, composer and conductor (1929-2019) (6)
5 A type of restaurant whose name translates as 'pancake house' (8)
7 Small domestic functional wooden objects (5)
8 The region in a bipolar transistor that produces carriers of current (7)
9 Archaic expression of regret or dismay (5-1-3)
10 At 3,724m, New Zealand's highest mountain (5,4)
17 The oldest amateur rowing association, based in Henley-on-Thames (7,4)
18 Beer that has been heated and spiced with allspice, nutmeg, anise, cinnamon and cloves (6,3)
19 Julian Barnes' first novel, published in 1980 (9)
21 Welsh rock group fronted by Cerys Matthews (9)
22 Enfeeble, e.g. by growing a plant in darkness (8)
24 To board the 4.50 from Paddington perhaps? (7)
26 Of a golden colour or brilliance (7)
27 Wire paper fastener (6)
29 Electrical engineer (1859-1906) acclaimed in Russia as the inventor of radio (5)

Solution 1,308

