

Polymath 1,108 Set by Hamilton

ACROSS

- 1 The gentlewoman of All's Well That Ends Well (6)
- 5 Place in New Jersey, George Washington's HQ during 1777 (10)
- 10 Wandering (8)
- 11 Collective name for Irish girls (8)
- 12 Military slang for a staff officer (3,3)
- 13 A small lift linking kitchen and dining room (4,6)
- 14 The provision of holidays in rural or farm settings (11)
- 15 The river that separates Devon and Cornwall (5)
- 17 Biblical term for getting some shut-eye (2,5)
- 19 The main group of riders in a cycle race (7)
- 22 South African word for a state of inattention or confusion (5)
- 23 German word meaning years spent travelling (11)
- 26 Pianist, composer and former prime minister of Poland (10)
- 27 A gliding step in ballroom dancing (6)
- 28 A native American axe (8)
- 29 Gaseous element, atomic no. 7 (8)
- 30 In Australia, a trolley for serving tea etc (10)
- 31 The ruling Deputy in Measure for Measure (6)

DOWN

- 2 The largest city in West Jutland (7)
- 3 1988 musical comedy film starring Jeff Goldblum and Geena Davis (5,5,3,4)
- 4 A type of residential complex where guests have no fixed contracts (10)
- 5 A female bullfighter (8)
- 6 Having stalked flowers, or resembling a bunch of grapes (8)
- 7 Relations by marriage (2-4)
- 8 The alternative title of Rupert Holmes' hit Escape (3,4,6,4)
- 9 Tradename for a type of motorhome (9)
- 16 A deep reddish-brown colour (10)
- 18 Political term first coined by Tony Blair in 1994 (3,6)
- 20 Religious festival in Hinduism and Sikhism, celebrated on 13 or 14 April (8)
- 21 Posta, English actress, or Bailon, US chat show host (8)
- 24 Philosopher, co-author of Principia Mathematica (1910) (7)
- 25 Rich Italian ice cream (6)

Solution Polymath 1,106

