

Polymath 1,143 Set by Sleuth

ACROSS

- 1 British prime minister who was the last to have served in the First World War (6,9)
11 Pertaining to voting (9)
12 Charles J, lawyer who assassinated US president James A Garfield in 1881 (7)
13 ----- Powers, epic novel by Anthony Burgess published in 1980 (7)
14 A lively kind of dance of Hungarian origin (9)
15 Representations of sets and their relationships by overlapping circles named after an English logician (4,8)
17 A very minute portion or particle (4)
19 Units of electric charge (8)
21 ----- Communion, third largest in the Christian church founded in London in 1867 (8)
23 1948 psychological thriller film directed by Alfred Hitchcock starring James Stewart and Farley Granger (4)
24 Surrealist artist noted for his portrayal of a pipe in his painting "La Trahison des images" (4,8)
27 Cilia is the technical term for these facial features (9)
28 Contracts or monopolies (7)
29 Line on the London Underground coloured red on Tube maps (7)
30 The Rufus Stone, marking King William II's death while hunting in 1100, is in this county (9)
31 Collapsible lights in cases of thin coloured paper (7,8)

DOWN

- 2 Another name for vitamin B1 (7)
3 A solid bounded by eight plane faces (10)
4 US term for a bowler hat (5)
5 A story, picture or other work of art that uses symbols to convey a hidden or ulterior meaning (8)
6 A delusion of power or self-importance (11)
7 The Australian mound bird (6)
8 Morose or never laughing (9)
9 A strong foreign money widely used in international trade (7,8)
10 Turkish politician and civil engineer who served as his country's president from 1993 to 2000 (8,7)
16 A set of chalk pits that ring the inner bank of Stonehenge (6,5)
18 The heroine of Stella Gibbons' comic novel Cold Comfort Farm published in 1932 (5,5)
20 The latest of many (9)
22 William, German-born British astronomer who discovered the planet Uranus in 1781 (8)
25 European capital known until 1918 as Reval (7)
26 A series of rabbit burrows (6)
28 Ancient Egyptian ram-headed god (5)

Solution Polymath 1,141

