

POLYMATH 1,316 by GOZO

ACROSS

- 1 London street which, for over 300 years, was the home of publishers and booksellers (11,3)
- 10 Measurement in ohms of the opposition to electrical flow, represented by the symbol Z (9)
- 11 Resort in Dorset on the east coast of the Isle of Purbeck (7)
- 12 Very large American vulture (6)
- 13 Light orchestral standard by Leroy Anderson, one of the Boston Pops Orchestra's signature pieces (6,4)
- 15 Alastair ____, Scottish character actor who played Amelia Fritton in the St Trinian's films (3)
- 16 Bitter verbal quarrel usually involving insults (8,5)
- 18 Performing arts centre in the City of London (8)
- 20 Shared by all members of a locality (8)
- 22 Member of the Cornovii, Silures or Icenii, say (7,6)
- 23 Abdominal muscles, colloquially (3)
- 24 Welsh social and educational reformer who established the model community at New Lanark, the cradle of the co-operative movement (6,4)
- 26 To an extent, rather (4,2)
- 28 African cat, the swiftest land mammal (7)
- 29 A controversial or delicate issue (3,6)
- 30 Blissful idleness (5,3,6)

DOWN

- 1 King Charles's niece, ninth in line to the throne (8,8)
- 2 A descriptive place-name (7)
- 3 Presteigne was the county town of this former Welsh county (11)
- 4 Department in Normandy, capital Alençon (4)
- 5 Study of religion (8)
- 6 Wide-topped calf-length leather footwear (7,5)
- 7 County town of County Tyrone (5)
- 8 Hit hip-hop musical about US founding fathers (8)
- 9 Italian heights which include the Aventine, Caelian and Viminal (5,5,2,4)
- 14 Calamitous (12)
- 17 Object, especially a skull, intended to indicate the inevitability of death (7,4)
- 19 Sake (4,4)
- 21 Graveyard, in German (8)
- 23 Dame Rosalind ____, life peeress and UK pensions expert (7)
- 25 Reminiscent of the past (5)
- 27 ____, crazy, unbalanced due to being cooped up (4)

Solution 1,315

