

CROSSWORD

No 16,711 Set by CINEPHILE

Solutions to clues marked * are linked to the same legend

ACROSS

- 1 *See into a vehicle here (6)
- 4 East wind from North of Venice with city of Roman Britain (8)
- 10 *In the matter of some Latin town (7)
- 11 Copied sound of -th in Welsh? (7)
- 12 Moved to Sussex coast (4)
- 13 Subject of religious instruction (RI) (10)
- 15 *Blackbird at home to raptor (6)
- 16 Damaging wave? (7)
- 20 Graceful and neat, oddly concealing a limb (7)
- 21 Girl from the Channel Islands (among others) (6)
- 24 HP for Peter Pan? (5-5)
- 26 Obstacle having no king for group of countries (4)
- 28 *Celebration possessed him (7)
- 29 Female insurgent retaining love for educationalist (7)
- 30 Teaching turned out great (8)
- 31 Rogue priest has what the corps should have (6)

DOWN

- 1 First in song gets a curse (8)
- 2 Drug needing trial – vain? (One hopes not) (9)
- 3 Obsequious sort of fish (4)
- 5 *He is a swallow, maybe, swallowed by a bee (8)
- 6 *Where they negotiate for money – and time possibly included (5,5)
- 7 Stop something inside (5)
- 8 *He was the up-to-date revolutionary (6)
- 9 Legend on the level in America (5)
- 14 *He had family at the courtyard, old city (4,6)
- 17 *Weapon to make one cub relax (9)
- 18 Not a Peke, presumably (8)
- 19 *He had a weapon against fate (8)
- 22 *Dark follower of monarch? (6)
- 23 Big and strong by keeping money back? (5)
- 25 Attendant bidding farewell to model? (5)
- 27 *He removed the heart from wild beasts (4)

JOHN GRAHAM, crossword compiler, was born 100 years ago today. As Araucaria in the Guardian and Cinephile for more than 30 years in the FT, he was widely regarded as the most inventive cryptic crossword compiler as well as being a mentor to younger compilers. He continued to set crosswords until shortly before his death in 2013. We reproduce here one of his 'specials' first published in 2005.

Solution 16,710

