

APRIL FOOLS' DAY

The unnumbered clues are made up of 9 pairs. There are two places in the grid where each pair can be inserted — either is correct. For example, alternate letters in ATTEST and STREET are the same (aTtEsT and sTrEeT). One unnumbered solution is split in two on the grid

UNNUMBERED CLUES

Henry's not a reformed classical actor (6,4)
Villa with single drop is jaw-dropping (10)
Cooks and sews (6)
Complaining of tangible characters (8)
In uppercase letters "Hits for onboard winding devices" (8)
Secretive deviant vies with girl first (7)
Probe SW banker capturing dictator (7)
Surely not HP when doubled (5)
Pathe report from all quarters, on cylinder (8)
Sticks to pies one rejected (6)
I get plan organised for making folds (8)
Look it up or down! (5)
Forthcoming person's novel
Gozo's after (10)
Ocean's the pits for conch (8)
Snake in Spain, winding (10)
Extortionate price increase of stylish revolt (5,4)
Sectarions caught out cracking spicy seed pod (4,5)
Pat's listening devices (4)

ACROSS

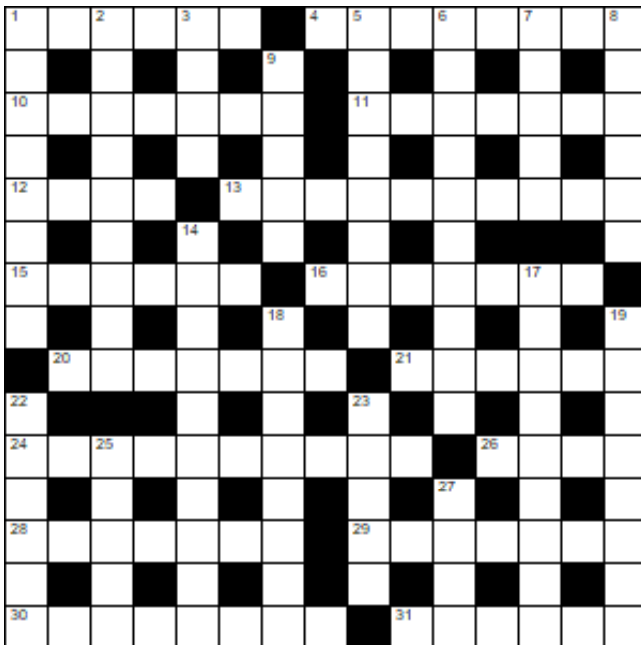

11 Article in our paper from female priests (7)
15 Poor Daniel is held fast (6)
16 Carry on with some bumpers — is tormenting! (7)
20 Cerebral shrines? (7)
21 Inwardly composed, at ease, calm (6)
28 Insect cutting oyster in half with power, reportedly (7)
31 Wales dismissed before start of lunch, too (2,4)

DOWN

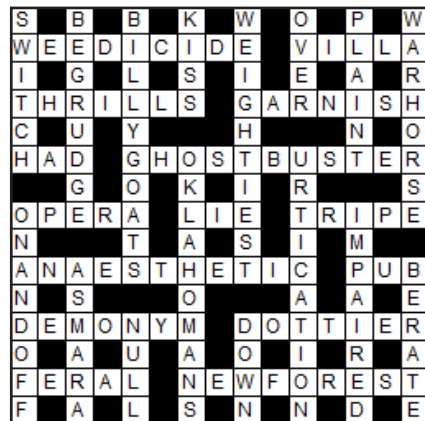

3 Muslim ruler mentioned in The Mirror (4)
5 Biography equal to noble (4,4)
7 Tribe's reserve province (5)
8 Chap's after fuel cuts (6)
25 It turns to danger when exhausted (5)

Now available on ft.com/crosswordapp — a special cryptic crossword to mark today's 150th anniversary of the birth of a composer

Jotter pad

Solution 17,367

You can now solve our crosswords in the new FT crossword app at ft.com/crosswordapp